Recommendation Letter

To Whom It May Concern:

It is a great pleasure for me to recommend UON Muonsopanha for admission to your university. He is one of the most extraordinary students I have encountered in several years of teaching. I advised Major Project during his last semester, and he was one of the very top students. He has a high aptitude for programming and was very much involved in his work, and often full fill the regular class assignments.

Sopanha's interest is computer science. He has developed android App for his Major Project Cambodia Tour Mobile Application. He was with me for several modules: Practical Internship, Decision Support System, Computer Network, C++ Programming, Software Project Management, Management Information System and Major Project.

Sopanha's personal qualities are as impressive as his accomplishments. He provides support to his friends when needed. He is responding to classroom instruction, working well in teams, being actively engaged in learning, completing work on time and being motivated to do well in school. Moreover, he has been working as web developer for several private companies.

I sincerely hope that you will be able to offer him a place. Shall you need further information, please contact me via my email sun.socheat@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

SUN Socheat
